Directs Air Traffic

PFC. WALTER H. LESTER

Many here will recognize the young man in the above picture as he traveled this territory for a number of years.

Pfc. Walter H. Lester is now stationed at Robins Field, Ga., as senior operator in the Control Tower, directing air traffic. He enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Force on Jan. 26, 1942, in Houston, and was sent to Dodd Field, San Antonio, for basic training and classification. From there he was sent to Sheppard Field, for further training and classification examinations.

He chose radio as number one choice and was sent to Scott Field, Ill., for training. Pfc. Lester studied at Scott Field for six months. While at this station Pfc. Lester and Miss Lillian Mondrik of this city were married. After completing his radio course at Scott he was sent to Smyrna Army Air Base, Tenn., to be trained as a Control Tower Operator and served in the Tower there for a short time. He arrived at his present station in November and has made good progress there, recently having been made senior operator.

Pfc. Lester is the son of Mrs. L. P. Lester of Schulenburg. He was born and reared in Schulenburg. Having completed school there he then went to Houston, and was a resident of that city for ten years. He was employed by the California Packing Corp. (Del Monte) of that city, serving as Specialty Agent, calling on the Retail Grocery Stores in the city and neighboring towns including Cameron.

Although Pfc. Lester was not a resident of Cameron he gained a host of friends here. He is a constant reader of The Midget, and has given a number of copies to friends who have sent them to all points in the United States. They say this is first Daily Midget Newspaper they have ever seen and want the folks back home to see it too.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS LEGION BIRTHDAY PARTY

One of the largest crowds ever to attend a Legion Birthday Party was in attendance here last night when the local Post observed the anniversary of the organization born in Paris at the close of the War in 1918.

Lieut. Governor, John Lee Smith, in one of his typical addresses on current economic problems, blazed away at organized labor and union racketeers. His address was praised here Wednesday as one of the most forceful and interesting ever heard in Cameron.

Governor Smith harked back to 1917 and 1918 when the members to whom he was talking were fighting in World War I. The intervening years brought his remarks to the present war and to problems of the nation. He condemned the unions and strikers generally who ask more pay while the American soldier fights for $50 per month.

Among the out of town Legionnaires were: Lt. Gov. Smith, Ed Riedel, Past State Commander Harry Rather, Department Adjutant and Jim Baskin, all of Austin, from Waco, Dr. Harry Rubin, Manager of the Veterans Hospital; Jack Armstrong of the Red Cross; W. D. Sonntag, 11th District Commander of the Legion, and Mr. Harmol, Post Commander of Post 440 of Waco; from Rockdale, Post Commander Max Ferrar, Jess Thompson, Clyde Franklin and John Wied and Mr. Strickler.

probably remain closed until after the funeral.

FINAL HOUR STRIKES IN TUNISIA BATTLE

The final hour has struck in the battle for North Africa.

The armies of General Erwin Rommel have been pushed back to the position they occupied before the summer of 1942 and there was every indication the deciding battle is being fought.

The American has advanced 30 miles in the past few days and taken some important objectives.

As the climax neared speculation was engaged in over a possible new Allied blow in Portugal of the Germans invade Spain.

The Germans were giving the Russians concern in the east and there were evidences the spring campaign may be at hand.

Citizens Would Aid Reyes Family Here

Gus Evans, widely known citizen, made the first contribution of $1.00 and suggested that many might want to help in this very urgent need.

The Herald will therefore accept such contributions as may be sent in or brought in. The funds will be turned over to the American Legion for gift to the family.

Funeral services were held early Wednesday in the little Hillside Cemetery near Wilson-Ledbetter Park. The tiny bodies of Dolores and Beatrice Reyes taken from the ruins of the Reyes home yesterday afternoon by Cameron Firemen, were buried under as heart breaking circumstances as the city has experienced in the life time of many.

The mother and father who could do nothing Tuesday as their babies perished in the flames, were consoled by friends and many have already given substantially. Nothing may assuage grief so bitter but the good people who practice Christianity have done what they could in the best way they knew how. It is the better side of good men and women in a common bond of sympathy that always dictates such manifestations of human brotherhood.

The American Legion, men who know best of all, the angles of human suffering, have done a magnificent thing in the spontaneous collection at their birthday party last night where men in all stations of life were moved by the common impulse to help.

If you feel like sharing in this aid bring or send your contribution to The Herald.

Pfc. Mikulec first reported for service at Fort Sam Houston and spent several months there. He was in Louisiana on maneuvers and is now in Michigan on maneuvers.

Carrier Pidgeon Is Taken Near Hanover; Goes on With Flight

A carrier pidgeon was housed for a few days at the A. J. Gunnels home near Hanover last week.

The pidgeon with small aluminum legbands was found among other pidgeons at the Hanover school by Thomas Gunnels, grandson of A. J. Gunnels and son of T. P. Gunnels.

One of the leg bands contained a number and a Dallas address. Permitted to leave the carrier moved off into flight, lighted at a tank to get a drink of water and then rose into the air and soon disappeared in a northerly direction.

Thinking the message was a matter of military importance the bird was brought to Cameron and later taken back to the Gunnels farm.

2 BABIES DIE IN FIRE HERE

Dolores and Beatrice Reyes, were burned to death at 2 p. m. Tuesday by a fire which destroyed the home two blocks south of the Matyastik Gin.

The babies, one 16 months old and the other 5 months old, were in the home alone, both occupying separate beds and were apparently asleep.

Their charred little bodies were taken from the smoldering ruins of the home by firemen who battled for some time before the beds in which they were sleeping could be reached.

A strong wind whipped the flames to quick destruction of the home.

Mrs. Reyes, the mother, had left the babes alone in the home while she went to a store not far away.

Dolores Reyes, the father was away at work. Neither could give any explanation of how the fire started.

As firemen battled for the lives of her babies, Mrs. Reyes screamed in terror and grief, while the father had to be restrained from entering the burning home. A few moments later he fainted.

Emory B. Camp, member of the department, reported the fire and the fatalities to the Herald at 2:30 p. m. He said the bodies of the two babies were burned to a crisp and beyond recognition.

Not since the disastrous fire in the Markham Service Station several years ago have any lives been lost in a Cameron fire.

ESSEN WRECKED BY BOMBS IN BIG RAID

Essen, industrial center in Germany, was laid in waste by bombs dropped by the British Royal Air Force in one of the most extensive air attacks of the war.

The British announced they had lost 23 bombers.

On the whole the war was running true to form. The Red Army in Kharkov was thrown back and the Russians admit they have suffered setbacks. The Reds were advancing in the direction of Smolensk.

Rommel had withdrawn further in Tunisia.

General Eisenhower, commanding all the Allied armies in Tunisia issued a statement in which he said Rommel is doomed and his army will be driven into the sea. Well, when they are driven into the sea, would best be the time to talk.

Military observers say it will take months to knock out the Axis in North Africa. There will be no invasion of the continent of Europe, said some, this year, if ever. The Russians are growing impatient.

Anthony Eden was in Washington to talk world politics, at the invitation of the United States Government.

Women AT WAR

Augusta

Augusta Travers—you know, the one who runs the little hat shop down on Main Street—she's always been dead set against gambling in any form. Never will forget when I was a kid and she found little Hammy, her youngest nephew, playing marbles for keeps out back of the shop. Took it on herself to give him a whaling and point out the evils of gambling. She's a strict woman, Augusta, real strict. Good as gold, of course. But mighty set against the lighter things of life.

Well, so you could have knocked us all over with a feather when Augusta started her gambling campaign for War Bonds and Stamps, right out in the window of her shop. First she got hold of the photographs of every boy here in town who's joined up, and pasted them on a big board in the window, with little American flags at the corners. Half the town was down there watching her do it. She left the middle empty. Then she brought out a placard she'd had printed up and put it in the middle, and this is what it said: "These are the Local Boys who have enlisted in America's War—They are betting that you are buying War Bonds and Stamps—Hitler and the Japs are betting you aren't—Place your bets inside."

My wife couldn't wait to get herself down there and inside Augusta's shop to see what in the wide world had happened to her, turning right around about gambling like that. You know my wife. She kind of likes to talk. She went right up to Augusta and said, "Augusta Travers, seems like something's come over you. Why, I never thought I'd see you running a gambling campaign in your own shop."

Mean to tell me it's a gamble whether this country buys enough bonds to win this war?" Augusta asked. I forgot to say. Wasn't just a hat my wife brought home. Was a hat and a $25 bond.

Powdered Juices Replace Coffee. Powdered lemon juice and cocoa have been substituted for coffee in two of the three canned packages of the B unit in the soldiers' emergency field ration "C," the war department announces. This change will save two-thirds the amount of metal formerly used since coffee had to be packed in an individual container to preserve it. The lemon juice and cocoa powders will be wrapped in cellophane. The contents of each package is sufficient to make one pint of beverage. As a protection against rust, the outsides of "C" ration cans are now being enameled.

J. M. DICKENS DIES IN CAMERON SATURDAY

J. M. Dickens, 53, widely known druggist and for 21 years with the prescription department of the Geo. A. Thomas & Sons drug store here, died at 4 a. m. Saturday at his home in Cameron.

Mr. Dickens had been ill from pneumonia. A heart attack was said here Saturday to have been the immediate cause of his death.

Funeral arrangements had not been made up to 3 p. m. Saturday. The body was at the Marek-Burns Funeral Home and it was expected arrangements might be made later in the day, pending the arrival of relatives.

The funeral will be held sometime Monday, it was believed and interment will be made in Oak Hill Cemetery in Cameron with Marek-Burns Funeral Home directing arrangements and Rev. Vernon S. Miles, Pastor of First Baptist Church, conducting the services.

While Mr. Dickens had been gravely ill and his condition serious, the people of the city were not prepared for the shock of his demise and hundreds here and throughout the state were in deep sorrow over his passing.

Surviving are his widow and three daughters as follows: Mrs. Ralph Koepf and Betty Jo Dickens of Cameron; and Mrs. George Skaryd of Houston.

Two sisters Mrs. H. L. McWater of Sinton and Mrs. W. R. Spear of Crystal City survive as do two brothers, L. L. Dickens of Kyle and Don Dickens of Los Angeles, Calif.

Local Prophet On Weather Says Rain Is Not Yet Due

A. L. Krenek, local weather authority, predicted Monday that rain for crop growing and planting will not come until the northerers cease.

He said a cold norther will reach Milam county early Tuesday and will be accompanied by light showers.

Mr. Krenek has long predicated weather. He declared Monday that due to the fact that Easter is coming late this year the growing season will be late and summer will be late.

Mr. Krenek said that not for 2600 years to come will Easter come as late as in 1943. Easter Sunday is April 25th.

While in the city he made his donation to the Red Cross at the Herald. Two sons are in the service, one, Jerry Krenek in Kessler Field, Miss., and Leo Krenek in St. Petersburg, Fla.

GERMAN FLEET SAID MASSED OFF NORWAY

Events were shaping up for what observers believe will be a new and violent phase of the war in Europe and Africa.

The Herald heard at noon Wednesday that the Germans are massing their fleet off Norway. This came amid rumors that the all out submarine warfare would get under way.

It is to be Germany's final effort to win the war.

In far off Africa the British 8th Army was ready to strike and General Rommel was hitting hard by air at the Marath Line.

The Red army was boiling into the Donets, ignoring the German victory at Kharkov.

Over in the South Pacific the Allies had virtually wiped out Dobo, a Jap base in the Solomons group.

Early this morning the Herald was requested to make public mention of the desire on the part of a number of citizens to give aid to the Reyes family whose home was destroyed and their babies burned to death at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

WASHINGTON

By CONGRESSMAN POAGE

Sometime ago I predicted that this Congress would exercise a large degree of independence. This afternoon the House gave a very convincing demonstration of its determination to accept responsibility for domestic legislation by passing a bill which definitely placed the control of large properties throughout Texas and approximately 1200 families. Want rather than under executive order. The proceeding was extremely confused. As a matter of fact, I am afraid that some of the confusion was deliberate and that it was planned by a few members who did not want their constituents to know just how they voted.

The bill under consideration was the Debt Limit Bill. The first three sections of the bill simply raised the national debt limit from 125 to 210 billion dollars. This increase, formidable as it is, was absolutely necessary if we are to continue our all-out war effort. No one welcomes such a debt, if we as in the case of practically every measure where the prosecution of the war is clearly involved, the House was almost unanimous in its willingness to do the necessary thing. The item that caused the debate was Section 4 of the Bill. This section was also known as "the Disney Amendment."

This section related to the President's executive order limiting all salaries to a net of $25,000. Of course, this is an issue on which a demagogue can easily arouse prejudice and misunderstanding. So few people make salaries of this sum that it is easy, from a political standpoint, to do this small group an injustice. I don't suppose that there is a single person in our District who makes such a salary. I think most of us will agree that no one should be allowed to get rich out of this war. I have long advocated legislation to prevent the development of a "crop" of war millionaires, and I have supported the tax legislation which we now have that takes 90 per cent of the earnings of both individuals and corporation in the highest brackets. This combined corporate and individual tax makes for the Government to take as high as 99 per cent of the returns from certain of the very large closely held corporations. It must be admitted, therefore, that Congress has done a great deal to prevent anyone from making a great fortune out of this war, but these highest taxes are what is known as "excess profits" taxes. I think all "excess" income—that is all extra income earned as a result of the war—should be strictly limited.

The Presidential order which had been issued in spite of the fact that Congress had never granted the authority to issue it undertook not only to prohibit new salaries of this figure but cut all salaries back to this amount. This is contrary to the policy followed in regard to fixing ceilings on all other prices and wages. In other cases, the ceilings were definitely limited to prices or wages existing when the war began.

The Disney Amendment (Sec. 4) prohibits by act of Congress the fixing of any salary in excess of $25,000 net for a year unless such salary was being paid before the United States went to war. If a salary were higher before December 7, 1941, it can, under this provision, remain at its pre-war level, but it can not be raised as a result of the war. I think this is fair. I think that it is a matter that should be controlled by law and not by decree. I therefore voted for Section 4 of this Bill. The votes were taken on various motions to substitute, amend, etc., and were not recorded, hence it will be impossible to read the Record and learn how anyone stood. Some of the members wanted it this way because they did not believe that their people would understand the issues involved. I believe that the people of Central Texas are intelligent enough to understand and to want fair play for everyone, and I believe that they expect me as their representative to vote for justice and Constitutional government and to let them know how I voted.

Earlier this week the House had showed just as conclusively that it would go along with the President on any measure which he showed it might be needed to win the war. On Wednesday by a vote of 407 to 6 the House voted to continue the Lend-Lease program of aid to our Allies. I think this is most convincing proof that practically the entire membership is anxious to co-operate with the Administration in the winning of the war. Lend-Lease is costing us billions of dollars, but it is saving thousands of American lives, and I am sure that the American people want us to spend every dollar that will contribute to the shortening of the war.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR
THOMAS R. WHISENANT

Funeral services for Thomas Ross Whisenant, 53, of Houston, were held Wednesday afternoon, March 10, at the grave side in Oak Hill Cemetery with Rev. Bob Pool, pastor of the Methodist Church officiating.

Mr. Whisenant was an engineer for the Santa Fe R'y until his health failed. He had been an employee of the railroad for about 20 years.

He moved to Cameron when his health failed and lived here for 5 years and was in bad health all that time. The family then moved to Houston where Mr. Whisenant was an employee at the ship yard until a few weeks before his death.

Although he had been in bad health for many years he was always hopeful of recovery up until the time he died.

He married Miss Carrie Orr Hillsborough in 1910. He joined the Methodist church when a child in Tinsdale, Texas. He was born in Tinsdale, September 15, 1890. His father was a pioneer of Tinsdale.

He is survived by his devoted wife, Mrs. T. R. Whisenant and six children who are as follows: Mrs. A. J. Hendricks of San Diego, Calif., Miss Rachel Whisenant of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Frank Bonnerville of Houston, Miss Esther Lee Whisenant, Thomas Ross Whisenant and Rex Whisenant of Houston.

Tribute was paid him by Houston friends and neighbors.

Mr. Whisenant wanted to be brought to Cameron for burial by the side of son, Charles, who was buried in Cameron in 1934.

Two daughters in California were unable to be at his bedside although they tried to charter a plane but could not get reservations. When they reached Houston, their father had passed away.

A spray of Gladioli, lilies and carnations were a tribute from his children and many other beautiful floral offerings covered the grave.

Pall bearers were: Bill Alex Bonds, Jeff T. Kemp, Judge Graham Gillis, Grady Allen, N. J. Johnson and Jim McGoldrick.

Both are hungry. For both there is not much promise of food. Why? Because they live in Greece.

Because in Greece the Axis took every scrap of food and every source of food—and deliberately left the people, the dogs, and a few useless burros to starve and to die.

that you can. Buy Bonds with every cent that you don't actually need to run your farm.

Buying Bonds will not only help win the war, but will provide you with a nest-egg for the future. They are the best investment in the world today. They never sell for less than you paid for them. NIG MOODY ANSWERS CALL TO THE ARMY

W. C. (Nig) Moody, former District Clerk here, has answered the call to duty and is now in the army, transferred to Fort Louis, Washington.

Pvt. Moody is in the Quartermaster Corps.

In a letter to the people and to his many friends here, Nig expresses his appreciation and also asks the same consideration for his wife, Mrs. Isabella Moody, who has been named to succeed her husband in the office. The letter follows:

"Uncle Sam has called and Nig must go.

"After I was inducted into the army, I was unable to report for active duty because of my misfortune in illness from pneumonia, sinus and flu. I am now able to report and so have gone to duty in military service.

"I want to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone of the good people of dear old Milam county for the fine things you did for me by twice electing me to the office of District Clerk. I will always love the kind people for that great honor and trust bestowed upon me. While serving you I did my best and I am certain that I fulfilled all the duties required of me and maintained a high standard of service in the office. I want the good people of Milam county to be as kind and considerate of my wife as they were to me.

"She was appointed by our honorable Judge Graham Gillis, to serve in my place the remainder of the term. I want you good people to keep her there until I return from the army at which time I expect to ask you to vote for Nig again because I am going to do my part in the United States army while I am gone as a soldier.

"I have enjoyed serving in the office of District Clerk and have served to the best of my ability to repay you as best I could for the honor you gave me in electing me.

"I thank each and everyone of you again from the bottom of my heart for your votes and support. I am,

Yours until my return home,
W. C. (Nig) Moody

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR J. M. DICKENS ARE HELD

Funeral services for J. M. Dickens, 56, widely known Cameron druggist, were held Monday, March 15, 1943, at 3 p. m. from the family residence here.

Mr. Dickens died from a heart attack at 3:15 a. m. Saturday morning, March 13, 1943. He had been ill at his home for several days, suffering a pneumonia attack. It was believed he was recovering when the heart attack took his life in the early morning hours Saturday.

Services, held at the home, by Rev. Vernon G. Miles, former pastor of the Baptist Church in Cameron, were attended by many. Interment was made in Oak Hill Cemetery with the Marek-Burns Funeral Home directing arrangements.

Mr. Dickens was a native Texan, born in Carrizo Springs on December 5, 1886. He spent his boyhood days in that south Texas country which then was a cattle world. Leaving the environs of the community of his early days, he attended medical school in Dallas. There he enlisted in the United States army and was stationed in the Philippine Islands for several years. He was married to Miss Lola Nash in San Antonio in 1918. Twenty years ago the family moved to Cameron where Mr. Dickens became druggist at the Geo. A. Thomas & Sons Drug Store.

In south Texas nearly all Americans, especially native born, speak Spanish. Mr. Dickens attained a surpassing degree of fluency in the language and by reason of this had built a large business among the Spanish speaking peoples of Milam county.

Surviving are his widow; three daughters, Mrs. George Skaryd of Houston, Mrs. Ralph Koepf and Miss Betty Jo Dickens of Cameron. Two brothers, L. L. Dickens of Kyle and Dan Dickens of Los Angeles, survive. Three sisters, Mrs. W. R. Spear of Crystal City, and Mrs. A. L. McWhorter of Sinton and Mrs. J. L. Small of LaPorte, also survive.

Pall bearers were: Active: F. H. Scarbrough, O. B. Horstmann, Kirk Smith, Will Vaughan, Tom Mowdy Gus Evans, Buck Angell and Sam McDermott. Honorary pall bearers were: Rush A. Thomas, Monta Thomas, Oxsheer Smith, W. O. Newton, E. O. Schiller, Joe C. Denson, Alvin Dusek, Dr. J. S. Hubert, Dr. Clifford G. Swift, Dr. Leland Denson, Dr. Edward Rischer, Dr. W. R. Newton, Dr. T. MacARTHUR WARNS JAP ALL OUT EFFORT DUE

A new and all out Japanese attempt to invade Australia and to regain important footholds in the great battle arch north of the land down under, was predicted by General Douglas MacArthur Monday.

In a special communication the great general said that Pacific war is far from won and that real trouble is ahead for the Allies. The last time he made such a prediction a Japanese naval force was wiped out in the Bismark sea.

Sunday a Japanese convoy presumably headed for the Australian border lands and islands, was pounced upon by an allied air force and some ships were sunk, including a destroyer. Cargo ships and transports made up the convoy.

The British 1st Army in North Africa had made some local advances and inflicted losses on the Nazi. New Nazi units have appeared in the fighting in North Africa.

The RAF offensive over the continent has been stopped by foul weather over Europe.

Endowment In Memory Of Capt. Eugene Key At Southern Methodist

Dr. and Mrs. Ira F. Key of Bryan Methodist church, have established an endowment fund at Southern Methodist University in memory of their son, Captain Eugene Key, who was killed in action in the Southwest Pacific last year.

Captain Key was a graduate of S. M. U. and resigned a position on the editorial staff of the Dallas Times-Herald to enter the Marine Corps. Funds from the endowment will be used to create a journalism library.

Capt. Key was a small boy when Dr. and Mrs. Key lived in Cameron where he was pastor for four years. He went to Tyler, where he remained for four years. Later he was made a Presiding Elder, and has filled a number of fine appointments over Texas. WOMEN AT WAR

Leonora

Leonora straightened the objects on her desk with great care. She had put her desk at the end of her room facing the door so that when her mother came in she would have to cross the whole room under Leonora's stern executive eye to get to her. From movies and pictures in the newspapers Leonora had gotten a good idea of how the desk of a busy woman of affairs should look.

With an important scowl, Leonora picked up a sheet of paper. Now she was two people—herself, the busy woman, and her own stenographer. "Miss Simpkins, take a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, will you?" she murmured under her breath.

"Yes, immediately," she murmured back at herself.

Leonora cleared her throat and looked at the ceiling for inspiration. Miss Simpkins bent over the sheet of paper hanging on the words about to fall.

"Dear Mr. Morgenthau," — "Got that?" — "Yes, madam."

"I am — ahem — thirteen years old and anxious to be of all possible service to the country at this time, ahem!"

"I earn a weekly income of from $1.37 to $2.12 by helping with the housework and by shovelling snow. I am at present in possession of one War Savings Bond and am buying stamps weekly. I want to become a member of the 10 percent Club. I feel it to be — ahem — not only my duty, but my privilege?" ("How do you spell privilege?" asked Miss Simpkins. "Don't bother me with these details," said Leonora)—my privilege as an American to invest at least ten percent of my income in War Bonds.

Yours truly,"

"Get that off at once, Miss Simpkins," said Leonora. "Yes, Ma'am! You certainly are an important woman, ma'am," said Miss Simpkins.

Roy H. Dunlap Now In England; Goes Over as Radio Man

News comes that Roy H. Dunlap, 20, the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Dunlap of Cameron, is now in England with a unit of the military forces.

Roy H. went over as a radio man and has been in the British Isles since December, 1942. He is among a large number of Cameron boys now making war history on the global fronts.

He was a member of the graduating class at Yoe High School in 1939, and a prominent leader in the band. He obtained his first position here with the Western Auto Associate Store as a radio man, later taking a place in the sales department at the Hefley-Stedman Motor Company from which place he went to San Antonio and took up radio work at Duncan Field.

He volunteered for service and was sent to a government radio school and after graduation took over responsible duties in the signal corps and now is in foreign service.

Roy was reared in Cameron and many friends of his school days and many from the people generally will be glad to have this word of his progress.

Mrs. Ike Looney, 90 Spends Birthday In Home At Ben Arnold

Mrs. Ike Looney of Ben Arnold, observed her 90th birthday Saturday March 13th at her home.

Mrs. Looney is the widow of the late Representative Ike Looney who died several years ago, and has made her home at Ben Arnold for many years. She was born in Alabama, came to Texas when about six years of age, and has lived in Milam county for over 50 years.

Mrs. Looney was ill with flu for several weeks prior to her birthday, but is now up and about her home. Her daughter, Mrs. G. B. Taylor of Cameron, has been spending most of the time this year with her.

Friends wish for Mrs. Looney many happy returns of the day.

Miss Carrie Bill Kuehl, student at Draughans Business College in Dallas, visited her parents and friends over the week end.

REDS POWERLESS TO STOP BIG TANK ATTACK

The German army was streaming back into Kharkov Friday.

This industrial capital of the Ukraine and key city to the Caucasus was retaken two weeks ago by the Russian army and now is passing back into the hands of the Germans.

Military observers believed that the German attack may indicate another and perhaps more desperate drive for the oil of the Caucasus region.

The Red Army communication said the Germans were back in the city.

In Washington a news cast said the Democracies are watching developments. The Democracies have been "watching developments" for so long they have just about lost prestige in the conquered countries.

In Moscow it was said that Stalin does not credit the African expedition as a second front. At best he is reported to have observed it is only keeping some 250,000 Germans out of Russia and about 1000 planes.

There was growing suspicion that the Russians may not long continue their present sacrifices without making some blunt statements regarding the failure of both Britain and the United States to invade Europe.

In Washington there was talk about social security and the President at his press conference Friday put it up to congress to plan the post war employment to maintain economic stability for the men who will return from the wars.

There is a matter of a little fighting to be done before any post war world can be organized.

The growing conviction that the United States and Britain will have to fight, brings impatience to the front. Money alone will not win the war and a policy of "this gun for hire" may lose us much in the end.

That Extra Something!

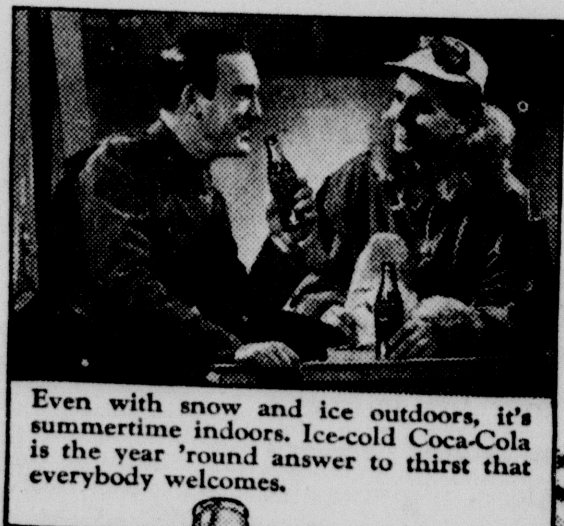

...You can spot it
every time

ASK the ski trooper why he welcomes ice-cold Coca-Cola. He will tell you what every ski enthusiast knows. Few things can make you thirstier than skiing. The dry cold, the exertion, the altitude do it. Experienced skiers know that Coca-Cola is the perfect refreshment after a ski run.

Coca-Cola not only quenches thirst. It adds refreshment that goes into energy. It is refreshment that tastes good, feels good, is good. Coca-Cola is made with choicest ingredients put together with a finished art.

Each time you raise an ice-cold Coca-Cola to your lips, you'll agree that the only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola, itself.

Even with war and so many Coca-Cola bottling plants in enemy-occupied countries, our fighting men are delighted to find Coca-Cola being bottled in so many places all over the globe.

Even with snow and ice outdoors, it's summertime indoors. Ice-cold Coca-Cola is the year 'round answer to thirst that everybody welcomes.

The best is always the better buy!

FLAGSHIP PILOT

When You Fly YOUR KITE

Flagship Pilots are tops! They are trained to observe the rules of safety. Fly your kites like a Flagship Pilot flies his flagship... safely!

FIRST, fly your kite in open spaces, where there are no electric lines!

SECOND, do not use metal or wire in your kite or kite string!

THIRD, if your kite should get tangled in electric lines, do not climb the pole or try to get the kite loose with a pole or stick. Call your electric service company!

This year, more than ever before, it is important that you fly your kite away from electric lines... because not only will you keep your kite-flying a SAFE sport, but, also, you will help in the war effort by preventing accidents and by helping to prevent unnecessary interruption in electric power service.

Be a "FLAGSHIP PILOT!" Fly your kite safely... away from electric lines!

Take Care of your GAS RANGE

1. Don't load the oven-door with heavy roasts, as you put them in or take them out. It might warp the door.
2. The oven-lining will last longer if you roast meats at low temperatures (from 250° to 325°).
3. Wipe off spilled foods at once with a dry cloth. Wait till enamel is cold, before using a damp cloth. And protect the top surface with asbestos mats.

4. If foods should boil over and clog the burner (never necessary on modern ranges, because there's a simmer burner to prevent that), clean the ports lightly with a thin wire.

Noodle-Cheese Custard

- 1 6-oz. package broad noodles
- 1½ cups grated American cheese
- 1 teasp. salt
- Pepper
- 3 eggs
- 1¼ cups milk
- 6 slices crisp bacon

Break noodles in 1-inch pieces; cook in boiling salted water till tender. Drain well, and add cheese, salt and pepper. Add beaten eggs and milk, and mix well. Pour into greased shallow baking dish and bake at 325° for 45 minutes. Garnish with the bacon.

★ ★ Why not cook the bacon in the oven, along with the custard? Spread it on a cake-rack that fits over a pan to catch the grease, and at 325° the bacon will brown perfectly (and stay flat) in 15 to 20 minutes. Don't let grease fall on the oven floor.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES
"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 21.

The Golden Text is: "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing" (John 6:63.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbeliever: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?" (II Corinthians 6:14.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The three great verities of Spirit, omnipresence, omniscience,—Spirit possessing all power, filling all space, constituting all Science,—contradict forever the belief that matter can be actual" (page 109.)

Legion Men Sponsor Aid for Reyes Family And Give $35.07

The American Legion on the occasion of the Birthday celebration here Tuesday night, sponsored among the members and those who attended a fund for the Delores Reyes family who lost their two babies in the fire which destroyed their home at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

Jim McGoldrick, Commander of the local Post, made an appeal to the members and their guests and the sum of $35.07 was realized. The money together with a large assortment of food from the birthday supper were taken to the Reyes home by Commander McGoldrick. When he arrived at the home where the family took refuge after their own home was destroyed, he found the members in prayer. Waiting for the devotion to end, Commander McGoldrick made the gift.

"I cannot recall when anything has so impressed me," said the Commander, a hard fighting soldier in the last war. "It was a very welcome gift from the people who have deep sympathy for this family over their loss."

The American Legion in one of its phases of work stresses Community service and this instance is proof of the practice as well as the faith.

VETERAN TELEPHONE RE-ENLISTS

Desk telephones—sturdy veterans that figured in the growth of America's telephone system for years and years—are being called back for wartime service.

More and more, telephone materials and telephone production lines have been shifted to supply things the Army and Navy must have. That means less and less for the nation's telephone system. So thousands of these old-timers are coming off the shelf.

They are ready to do their part in meeting today's tremendous demand for telephones.

They are good telephones—first-class talking instruments. And they'll do a first-class job of carrying the calls of a nation at war.
